LEGAL POSITION

This application will not bind the parties until the applicant has received from the duly authorized officer of the Dongara Denison Community Festival Association Inc (“DDCFA”) confirmation indicating that the space has been allocated to the applicant in acceptance of the application.

Whilst every effort will be made by the DDCFA to allocate space in accordance with this application, the DDCFA reserves the absolute right to allocate space in the best interests of the Festival, including limiting the maximum space allowable.

If the application is rejected, or if the dimensions of the space allocated to the applicant are less than the dimensions applied for, an appropriate refund or part thereof will be made.

The DDCFA reserves the absolute right to refuse to allocate space to any applicant who, in the opinion of the DDCFA does not propose to display equipment compatible with the aims and objectives of the Festival or which the DDCFA does not believe is in the best interest of the Festival.
